FPL Supports Art and Culture in Portland

When it comes to art and culture, no one will confuse Portland, Connecticut with New York, London or Paris. But there are many opportunities for local residents to experience art and culture by taking advantage of various Library programs funded by the Friends of the Portland Library. For example, you can pick up Museum Passes at the Portland Library that provide free admission to several excellent Connecticut art museums. You also can view an art show or attend one of FPL's Artist Receptions in the Library's Mary Flood Room. Perhaps you could choose a DVD of your favorite opera, Broadway show or classic movie from the Library's extensive DVD collection. Or attend one of the many FPL-funded art, music or literature programs offered for adults or children at the Library.

FPL's Museum Pass Program provides free admission to four outstanding Connecticut art museums. Hartford's Wadsworth Atheneum, America's oldest public art museum, boasts an impressive collection of European, American and Contemporary art, along with an extensive Costume and Textile Collection. At the 152 acre Hill-Stead Museum in Farmington, you can experience paintings by Degas, Cassatt, Whistler and Monet and wonderful ceramics and furniture, all set in the Pope family's comfortable and livable home. The New Britain Museum of American Art, the first museum dedicated strictly to American Art, now has a collection of over 10,000 pieces that spans from John Trumbull to Georgia O'Keefe and beyond. Finally, you can visit the home of American Impressionism and the famous Lyme Art Colony at the Florence Griswold Museum in Old Lyme. Passes can be reserved online at www.portlandlibraryct.org, by phone (342-6770) or by visiting Portland Library.

The Library's Mary Flood Room not only serves as the main venue for Town meetings and community groups, but also as the home of art shows by talented local artists. Recent shows include works by the students of Watercolor Creations (an art school in Cromwell), members of Brownstone Arts (a local artists' group) and the photographer Carolyn Astle. FPL sponsors an Artist Reception for each art show, and beverages and homemade baked goods are always served. Please check the Rivereast or the Library's website for information on featured artists and reception dates and times.

FPL funds the entire cost of Portland Library's impressive DVD collection. From The Pirates of Penzance to Pirates of the Caribbean, from La Boheme to Phantom of the Opera, from Pride and Prejudice to Lawrence of Arabia, the Library's collection contains something for everyone.

FPL finances many children's, family and adult programs throughout the year. In 2010, FPL has funded Library programs on memoir writing, puppetry, hula dancing, marine biology, magic, Mark Twain, doodling, basketball and music. We also have funded both the Children's and Adult Summer Reading Programs. For the past two years, FPL also has served as the organizing sponsor of Family Shakespeare, a program that brings a professional Shakespeare production to Portland each August.

All of these programs are possible only because of the generous support of our members. With significant cuts to the Library's budget in recent years, FPL's role has become more crucial than ever. Please join FPL (or renew your membership) by sending in the enclosed membership form today. With your help, Portland Library will continue to serve as a vital resource for art and culture in our community.

FPL Sponsors Family Shakespeare

For the second year in a row, FPL served as the organizing sponsor of Family Shakespeare, a program that brings a professional Shakespeare production to Portland. On August 28th, over 100 people gathered on the Portland Town Green to watch New England Shakespeare's excellent production of Twelfth Night.

Many thanks to Portland resident David Rintoul for the countless hours he spent raising money for this event and organizing every detail. Thanks also to the many Portland businesses that supported this program. FPL looks forward to working with David and town businesses to bring another Shakespeare production to Portland in 2011.

FPL Sponsors Artist Receptions

An exhibit showcasing artwork by members of the Brownstone Art Guild was displayed in the Mary Flood Room throughout September. A reception was held on Saturday, September 11th. Photographer Carolyn Astle exhibited her work at the Library during the month of October. Her exhibit opened with a reception on Saturday, October 2nd. Both receptions were sponsored by the FPL Executive Board.

The FPL Executive Board will sponsor an artist reception on Saturday, November, 13th highlighting the work of local watercolorist Richard Raicik. An award winning artist, his works include landscapes, seascapes and abstracts, along with some portraits. Richard has exhibited at juried shows throughout Connecticut. The reception will be held from 2:00-4:00 pm in the Library's Mary Flood Room. As always, home-baked goods and beverages will be served.

Scheduled artist exhibits for 2011 include:

March and April: Portland Schools Youth Art Exhibit. Reception will be held on Thursday, March 3rd.

FPL's Annual Book Sale Raises $3,000

The Friends held another very successful book sale during the weekend of October 22-24. The Annual Book Sale, which is our largest fundraising event (other than our Membership Drive), raised almost $3,000 this year. This is a $300 increase from 2009.

We made some changes this year. Instead of holding the book sale at both the Library and the Senior Center, we consolidated the operation to just one location--the Library. The unexpected closure of the Library's main entrance due to the sidewalk improvement project required a last minute change in our set up. Yet, the sale went very smoothly, and we truly appreciate everyone's patience with this issue. Also, in FPL's continuing effort to "go green," all members who came on Friday night received an FPL logo recyclable bag to carry their selections home. We hope to see these bags around town as our members shop and visit the Library in support of our other events.

As always, setting up the Annual Book Sale was our first challenge. Our small but eager group of volunteers worked in earnest Thursday afternoon to get the Library ready for the sale. Under the direction of Phyllis Greene and Bob Casati, veteran book sale organizers, the books flew quickly from the truck on to the tables.

When the doors opened on a chilly Friday evening, a line of anxious buyers was patiently waiting to search the tables for their favorite authors, or discover a rare edition, or settle in with a classic. Sales were brisk throughout the weekend, and the Friends donated all remaining books and tapes to Connecticut Easter Seals.

The Friends would not be able to run a successful Annual Book Sale without the help of a veritable army of volunteers. This year's volunteers included students from PMS, PHS, Xavier High School, Mercy High School and St. Mary's CCD program, and staff from the Portland Library and the Public Works Department. Many thanks to Portland Fire Department Companies #1 and #2 for the use of their tables and to Portland Library and BIS for the use of their facilities. Finally, we would like to thank the many Friends' members who spent countless hours organizing, planning and executing the event.

All the books, puzzles, videos, DVDs and CDs sold at the event were collected throughout the year, thanks to generous donations from Portland residents. The Friends are already making plans for next year's Annual Book Sale. We eagerly await your donations and will be holding our next collection on Thursday, December 2nd. The "Read and Recycle" events are held on the first Thursday of each month at BIS from 3-6 pm (July and August, 1-3 pm). Thank you so much for your support. Mark your calendars for our next Annual Book Sale in October, 2011!
